95th Birthday

Friday, August 12, the Long Term Care Center of the Wasatch County Hospital was festive with streamers, music and tapping feet as friends and family gathered to honor Lillie Bell Fraughton on her 95th birthday.

Lillie was born August 12, 1888 to Nettie Johnston and John Laidlaw Bell in Daniel, Wasatch County. On November 11, 1911 she married Virgil Fraughton in Heber City. He died December 15, 1974.

This union was blessed with four children, all of whom are living. They are: Mrs. Norman (Virgie) Murphy, Roosevelt, Utah; Dee Fraughton, Orem; Mrs. Earl (Marie) Kohler, Midway and Mrs. Ione Lewallin, Salt Lake City. In addition she has 16 grandchildren; 33 great grandchildren and one great-great grandchild. She also has one living sister - Mrs. Ellis (Fern) Murdock, Heber City.

Lillie Bell Fraughton

VIRGIL F. FRAUGHTON is one of the efficient and popular officials of his native county, and at the time of his first election to the office of sheriff of Wasatch County, in 1914, he had the distinction of being the youngest sheriff in the entire State of Utah. He maintains his residence and executive headquarters in the City of Heber, the county seat, and he is a scion of the third generation of the Fraughton family in Utah, his father, Homer Fraughton, having been born in Utah in 1855 and having been one of the sterling pioneer citizens of Wasatch County, at the time of his death, in 1918.

Virgil F. Fraughton was born at Heber, Wasatch County, July 4, 1889, and his civic loyalty and patriotism in his mature years have been in full consonance with the spirit of his native day. He is a son of Homer and Eliza (Peterson) Fraughton, the former of whom was born and reared in Utah, as previously stated, his parents having been converts to the faith of the Latter Day Saints and having become pioneer settlers of Utah Territory. Homer Fraughton was reared under the conditions and influences of the pioneer days and in the passing years he made a record of successful achievement along both civic and material lines. He gave many years to service in varied public offices of localized order, was a mining prospector, was associated at times with logging and other phases of the lumbering industry, and served as foreman in dam construction work on the Provo River.

In the public schools of Heber the present sheriff of Wasatch County continued his studies until he had duly profited by the advantages of the high school, and as a young man he was associated with farm enterprise and logging, besides having clerked in a mercantile establishment for some time. It was shortly prior to his twenty-fifth birthday that he was elected sheriff of his native county, in 1914, and thus gained prestige as being the youngest incumbent of such county office in the entire state. He gave an effective administration during his one term in this position, and in 1917 he entered the employ of the Utah Copper Company, for which he served as a guard at the plant Arthur, Salt Lake County, during a period of two years. In 1918 he became foreman of the J. S. Murdock ranch on Kern Creek, and in the following year he became bookkeeper for the Heber Exchange Company. He retained this position three years, and in 1922 he engaged independently in the ice business at Heber. To this enterprise he gave his attention until 1926, when he was again elected sheriff of the county, the office of which he is the valued incumbent at the time this sketch is in preparation. The Heber Chamber of Commerce claims Mr. Fraughton as one of its loyal members, he has membership in the Utah Peace Officers Association, and he and his wife are members of the Church of Latter Day Saints.

November 4, 1911, recorded the marriage of Mr. Fraughton to Miss Lillie Bell, daughter of John and Nettie Bell, of Heber, and the children of this union are Virgie, Dee, Marie and Ione.
